down the corrupt desires of your soul and the pas - sions of your flesh. With the si - lence of the wilderness you strangled your sinful words and thoughts. You wa - tered the [desert with the streams . . .]

desert with the streams of your tears. You made the fruits of repent - ance grow — for us. // We cel - e - brate your mem - o - ry, O ho - ly one.

vs. Now, and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Theotokion

A new — miracle surpasses all an - cient mir - a - cles!

Who knows of a Mother who gave birth with-out — a man,

[who carried in her arms . . .]

who car - ried in her arms her Cre - a - tor? This birth is the will of God! Since you carried Him as an infant in your arms, O most pure one, and since you pos - sess motherly boldness be - fore Him,

do not cease praying for us who hon - or you, //

[that He may be . . .]

that He may be boun - ti - ful and save — our souls!
